the original, so don't let that throw you. Scholastic, The Countess tells Anne how disappointed she was that she broke her promise but add to that a character like Emma, who I understand was going through a tough time but was still majorly a jerk; a TON of language including basically the worst word there is written out; the glory of insta-love; and really, really disturbing cyber-bullying, I'm thinking I can't really give this higher than 2.
