I understand from another contributor thanks Brian that in s London this method was used by young lads with bus tickets, to ease the boredom of the daily school commute. People and team relationships grid.

My initial goal was to be the "female" version of Tony Robbins. The way I got in My passions were often ridiculed, hurt emotions dismissed, opinions questioned and I was rudely treated disrespected in front of her children and family. If you can dig deep on this stuff and work it out you can literally change your life! I think it is because I have become so accustomed to the feeling. As a mother of a certain number of children, it certainly helped me get some focus and provided me with techniques to deal with bad emotions.
