Quotes from Duty and Desire. New details will be emailed to you. But Aidan has set herself up to be compared to Austen and of course suffers terribly by that comparison. Darcy, Elizabeth Bennet, And The After the stupidly unbelievable adventure Do not read. A wife equal to his station in life will cure him of his infatuation with Miss Elizabeth Bennet. Aidan could easily have only written TWO novels and condensed the "action" of this time period to keep the story goin Even though it is the second book in the "Fitzwilliam Darcy, Gentleman" trilogy, nothing important happens in "Duty and Desire. Jane Austen herself has a Gothic parody that is well known to her fans, Northanger Austen 's Pride and Prejudice. It is, in my opinion, not at all in keeping with the tone of Jane Austen's books, coming closest to Northanger Abbey if to any of .
