The past, in a pattern that will become constitutive of the web narratives in Goja, is elaborated through language, through the telling and re-telling of stories. The balance of power and control of sexuality are equally shared in this marriage as Naseer is brought to realize the consequences for forcing his wife into an act she did not want to perform. When he does not stop she twists out of his arms and runs out of the grove into the courtyard and stands panting, her back pressed against the wall of the house [Nair 82].
