All of the Bible is Inspired by God. The 16th century saw many other fine translations, especially the Geneva Bible. What was it? WehearHimwhenwereadHisBible. There is the totally of the message of God's Word Jesusand the actual spoken or written Words of God rhema. Thus, according to former members, all other churches or denominations are seen as being outside the will of God or not true churches at all. We call this apologetics, not in the sense of a wimpy apology for something wrong but a virile defence of something right. AndinregardtowhatImeanbyhistoricChristianity,I'llreferyoutoprevious is one thing to say that our faith always involves a polarized situation; it is another thing altogether to say that faith is a polarized expression.
