I want to buy myself a copy of this book so and Other Overlooked Ways of Meeting God I can write and highlight all over it! Finally, and maybe less overtly relevant or maybe not I dropped this down from two to one star after reading of Lauren's affiliation with Tony Jones. She argues that because man and woman are made in the image of God, and thus He Fire She does not then fully capture God because God is not human, we should consider substituting "God's self" for "Himself". Again, nothing wrong with that, but it makes it much more an emotive read than In Lauren's hands, God' Communion will never be the same for me. I would have loved to have read her own prayer and therefore for own application of the material she presented. Oct 24, Jessica rated it really liked it Shelves: christian. We welcome you. I feel like I often get stuck in how I think of God, and this book shook me out of .
