The Germans were now not only starving, but running out of ammunition. Many women fought on the Soviet side, or were under fire. The memorial was finished in ; its focal point is The Motherland Calls a great metre- foot- high statue of a winged female figure holding a sword aloft.

Hitler ordered too many goals and he did not think Soviet reserves were as strong. The Red Army gradually adopted a strategy to hold for as long as possible all the ground in the city. That is why myth-making under Putin has had such potency. For the pro-Soviet camp, Stalingrad represents the major triumph in both meanings of the word Stalin and the Great Battle as a remedy for the trauma of the post-Soviet present.

The Soviets burned large amounts of grain during their retreat in order to deny the combination of constant air support operations on the German side and the Soviet surrender of the daytime skies began to affect the strategic balance in the air. Archived
