The " Statutes of Autonomy " of the different regions are the second most important Spanish legal normatives when it comes to the political structure of the country. With a methodology of descriptive analysis, it has been possible to establish that Campmany addressed in his political column the public affairs of the nation, specifically the approval of the constitutional text, from a conservative position and with a great sense of humor. Thus, in our study we intend to: 1. CirEsp.
