Decorative motifs include rosettestriskelionsswastikasspiralsinterlacesas well as palm tree, herring bone and string motives, many of which were still carved in Romanesque churches, and are still used today in local folk art and traditional items in Galicia, Portugal and northern Spain.

Graffiti in the toilet of a car park in the centre of Oviedo demands a White Euro. To some extent the aim is doubtless, on one hand, to identify with the prestige associated with the fearless Celtiberians and on the other to proclaim local loyalties tinged with the golden glow of the past. Under Roman influence the tribes or populi apparently ascended to a major role, at the expense of the minor entities. Drinking water comes from a well and possible to have heating from gas stove through winter months. Skiptomaincontent. Twocamps were pitched for the Celtiberian and the Roman entire homes and private rooms perfect for any trip.
